HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

AMERICAN LEGION PARK BANDSTAND

HABS No. MO-1773

Location: Augusta, St. Charles County, Missouri

HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL INFORMATION

The following information was recorded by Alexander Piaget and Charles van Ravenswaay at the time the photograph was taken:

Built ca. 1880. The Augusta Harmonie Verein was organized in 1856 and after the Civil War constructed a building for their meetings in the park now owned by the American Legion Post #262. This bandstand was built near their hall and is [i.e., in 1962] still being used for band concerts.

No foundation. No alterations apparent except the use of the composition roof to replace the original shingles.

PROJECT INFORMATION

The Piaget-van Ravenswaay Survey consists of a number of photographs, primarily of sites and structures in Missouri, which were taken before 1938 by Alexander Piaget and after that by Paul Piaget, both in conjunction with Charles van Ravenswaay. Photographs of buildings were incorporated into the HABS collection in 1985 by Laura Rupp and in 1986 by Deborah Fulton, HABS historians. A master list is available in the [REDACTED] records for MO-1800.
